

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., September 23, 1886.

Sir:

Owing to the extraordinary demand upon the Treasury for dimes, which comes from all parts of the country, I have to request that you make such arrangements as will insure the coinage of at least $50,000. per week in dimes for the next month. It is believed that with the coinage of this sum weekly for the period of one month, that the Department will be able to supply the demand.

Should it be necessary for you to continue the coinage at this rate for a further period you will be duly notified.

Very respectfully,

R. C. Preston

Acting Director.

Hon. D. M. Fox,

Superintendent U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 141

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
September 23, 1886

Sir:

Owing to the extraordinary demand upon the Treasury for dimes, which comes from all parts of the country, I have to request that you make such arrangements as will insure the coinage of at least $50,000. per week in dimes for the next month. It is believed that with the coinage of this sum weekly for the period of one months, that the Department will be able to supply the demand.

Should it be necessary for you to continue the coinage at this rate for a further period you will be duly notified.

Very respectfully,
R.E. Preston
Acting Director.

Hon. D.M. Fox,
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.